

MED-QUAD

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON CIVIC UNIVERSITY: 31ST MARCH TO THE 1ST APRIL 2022, KILKIS, GREECE

SAVE THE DATE! International Hellenic University, partner of the MEDiterranean QUadruple helix Approach to Digitalisation project, with Lead Beneficiary Epimorfotiki Kilkis, will host an “International Seminar on Civic University” directed towards to teachers, students, university authorities, Municipalities, SMEs, start-ups, citizens on the 31st March to the 1st April 2022, 16.00 pm to 20.00 pm Greek time, in Kilkis (Greece).

Methods for shaping the “Civic University”, designing its role, tasks, and responsibilities within the Quadruple Helix model for innovation in Mediterranean.

Why participate?

- Participation at the International Seminar on Civic University for teachers, students, university authorities, Municipalities, SMEs, start-ups, citizens
- First-hand information on interpretation and adaptation of the theories on “Civic University” to the realities represented in the six countries of the Mediterranean.
- Participation in an open dialogue for the Civic University in the Mediterranean.
- Networking with teachers, students, university authorities, Municipalities, SMEs, start-ups, citizens from 6 Mediterranean countries
- Insight on its countries' particular view on “Civic University”.

How to participate?

ONLINE via YouTube: for 1st day please click HERE and for 2nd day please click HERE
Meeting Agenda

The project is 90% funded by the European Union (EU) and has a budget of 3.3 million euros.